
Let Contract for Arsenal Building

A contract for the building of a new administration building at the Kankakee division of the Joliet Arsenal, which is used by the U. S. Rubber company, was granted this week to the Great Lakes Engineering Corporation, Chicago, at a cost of $357,976.

The actual contract will be executed this week and work will begin within about 15 days on the construction of the new building.
